

WRITING<sup>THE</sup>

North

A major exhibition at

Da Gadderie

Shetland Museum and Archives

March 29-May 11

The exhibition tells the story of Northern Isles literature through books, sound recordings, manuscripts and illustrations. The exhibition will guide visitors through four themes: myths and legends, visitors to the islands, working lives, and the sounds of Orkney and Shetland. Interactive displays will bring to life what it was like to live, to work and to write in the islands from the early nineteenth century to the present day.
