

Crofthouse Museum Family Fun Day!

museum
Shetland
archives

With the Shetland Library

Join us for a day of fun, crafts, storytelling, history, nature and much more!

Saturday 30th June

10.30am - 3.30pm

Scheduled activities

- 10.30am Bookbug with Shetland Library
- 11.30am Guided walk with Paul Harvey:
Wildflowers, Crofthouse & Coast
- 12.00pm Sketch with Aimee Labourne:
& 2.30pm 'Draw what you see'
- 12.30pm Curator talk with Ian Tait:
'The crofting calendar'
- 2.00pm Curator talk with Ian Tait:
'Life at South Voe'
- 3.00pm Curator Q & A

All day activities

- Archaeological Dig Box & recording finds
- Butter making workshops
- From rig to table:
Quern demonstrations
Winnowing corn demonstrations
How to use a knockin' stane
- Peat working:
Raisin', roogin' and maakin a stack!
- Storytelling with Davy Cooper
- Barbecue & Refreshments
- Badge making
- Face painting
- Crafts

Admission: £3.50 adults; £1.50 concession

Parking is limited so we would advise that visitors park at the Dunrossness school and leave the available spaces for those with small children or mobility issues.

Follow signs from Mainland's Shop.

www.shetlandmuseumandarchives.org.uk

The Crofthouse Museum is operated by Shetland Amenity Trust